

SPRIG

Meaning: A sprig is a small stem or branch, typically bearing leaves or flowers, used for decoration or flavoring in cooking and herbal preparations.

1. The chef garnished the dish with a fresh sprig of rosemary for added flavor.
2. She picked a delicate sprig of lavender from the garden to use in her herbal tea.
3. The florist arranged a beautiful bouquet, including a sprig of eucalyptus for texture.
4. He tucked a sprig of mint into his drink, enhancing its refreshing taste.
5. As they walked through the forest, they stumbled upon a sprig of wildflowers blooming brightly.
6. The chef garnished the dish with a fresh sprig of rosemary.
7. She picked a sprig of mint to add a refreshing flavor to her drink.
8. As we walked through the garden, I noticed a sprig of lavender swaying in the breeze.
9. He placed a sprig of parsley on top of the soup for an elegant presentation.
10. The florist arranged a beautiful bouquet featuring a sprig of eucalyptus for added texture.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/sprig>