

SPROD

Meaning: 'Sprod' refers to a small, scattered collection or group of items, such as leaves or flowers, often moving or appearing lively.

1. The children laughed as they watched the sprightly dog chase after the sprod of leaves in the wind.
2. His enthusiasm for the sprod of colorful flowers brightened up the dull garden.
3. During the picnic, we spotted a sprod of ants busily carrying food to their nest.
4. The artist used a sprod of vibrant colors to bring the canvas to life.
5. As the storm approached, a sprod of dark clouds gathered ominously in the sky.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/sprod>