

SPRUG

Meaning: To sprug means to enhance or embellish something, typically by adding vibrant or appealing elements.

1. The artist decided to sprug her painting with vibrant colors to attract more attention.
2. They needed to sprug the old building to preserve its historic charm while adding modern amenities.
3. His plan to sprug the garden with exotic plants turned out to be a delightful success.
4. To sprug their presentation, they included interactive elements that engaged the audience.
5. She always knew how to sprug her outfits with unique accessories that made a statement.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/sprug>