

SPRUNT

Meaning: 'SPRUNT' (verb): To sprint or dash forward with sudden speed, especially in a competitive context.

1. The young athlete began to sprunt ahead of his competitors as the finish line drew near.
2. In the world of competitive sprinting, the ability to sprunt at the right moment can make all the difference.
3. With a sudden burst of energy, she managed to sprunt past her rivals, claiming the lead.
4. The sprunt of the rabbit startled the fox, causing it to lose focus for a moment.
5. His decision to sprunt forward during the debate surprised everyone in the room.
6. The young athlete experienced a burst of energy as he made a quick sprunt towards the finish line.
7. After a long day at work, she decided to take a sprunt through the park to clear her mind.
8. The dog took off in a sprunt after the squirrel that darted across the path.
9. In the final moments of the game, the player made a sprunt to steal the ball from his opponent.
10. With a sudden sprunt of inspiration, she completed her painting just in time for the exhibition.
11. The young athlete began to sprunt ahead of his competitors during the final lap.
12. As the storm approached, I could see the animals sprunt into their shelters for safety.
13. She felt a sudden urge to sprunt through the crowded market, eager to reach her destination.
14. With a burst of energy, the puppy would often sprunt around the yard chasing after butterflies.
15. In the final moments of the game, the players began to sprunt towards the goal, determined to score.