

SPURNER

Meaning: Spurner (noun): a person who rejects or dismisses something, especially conventional ideas or standards.

1. The spurner of conventional wisdom often finds new paths to success.
2. As a spurner of mediocrity, she constantly seeks excellence in her work.
3. Despite being labeled a spurner by his peers, he remained true to his vision.
4. The artist was considered a spurner of traditional art forms, pushing boundaries with every piece.
5. In a world full of followers, she chose to be a spurner, blazing her own trail.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/spurner>