

SPURRIER

Meaning: Spurrier: characterized by a more chaotic, energetic, or unconventional quality, often intended to inspire creativity or innovation.

1. The artist's latest work is even spurrier than his previous pieces, capturing a chaotic energy.
2. After a long discussion, the committee decided to take a spurrier approach to the project in hopes of inspiring creativity.
3. Her writing style became spurrier over time, reflecting her growing confidence and unique voice.
4. The debate grew spurrier as new ideas were introduced, resulting in a lively exchange of opinions.
5. His attempts to explain the complex topic became spurrier, leaving the audience more confused than before.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/spurrier>