

SPURT

Meaning: SPURT (verb): to move or flow suddenly and rapidly in a burst or to exhibit a brief, intense increase in activity or energy.

1. The athlete managed to spurt ahead in the final moments of the race.
2. A sudden spurt of creativity helped her finish the painting in record time.
3. After a long period of calm, the river experienced a spurt of water flow due to the rain.
4. His excitement caused him to spurt out the news before the official announcement was made.
5. The company saw a spurt in sales after launching their new advertising campaign.
6. The athlete managed to spurt ahead of his competitors in the final lap of the race.
7. As the water pipe burst, a sudden spurt of water shot into the air, soaking everything nearby.
8. Her enthusiasm for the project caused a spurt of creativity that inspired the whole team.
9. The child let out a spurt of laughter when the puppy playfully tumbled over.
10. After a brief spurt of energy, he found himself exhausted and needed to take a break.
11. The athlete made a final spurt towards the finish line, leaving his competitors behind.
12. As the geyser reached its peak, a powerful spurt of water shot into the sky.
13. She felt a sudden spurt of energy after her afternoon coffee, boosting her productivity.
14. The car experienced a spurt of acceleration as the driver pressed the gas pedal.
15. A spurt of creativity struck him late at night, leading to a flurry of writing.
16. The athlete managed to spurts ahead of his competitors during the final lap of the race.
17. As the water began to flow, it created a sudden spurt that startled everyone nearby.
18. She felt a spurt of excitement when she received the job offer she had been waiting for.
19. The engine emitted a loud spurt before it finally roared to life.
20. After a long pause, he experienced a spurt of inspiration and quickly began writing.
21. She felt a sudden spurt of energy after her afternoon coffee.
22. The athlete experienced a spurt of speed in the final lap of the race.

23. A spurt of laughter erupted from the crowd at the comedian's joke.
24. The plant showed a noticeable spurt of growth after the rain.
25. He had a spurt of inspiration that led to his best painting yet.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/spurt>