

SPUTATIVE

Meaning: Sputative refers to something that is based on conjecture or speculation rather than solid evidence or fact.

1. The sputative nature of his claims raised doubts among the audience.
2. She presented a sputative argument that failed to convince the jury.
3. In the debate, his sputative assertions were quickly countered by factual evidence.
4. The scientist's sputative theory sparked controversy within the academic community.
5. His sputative remarks during the meeting led to a heated discussion among the team members.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/sputative>