

SPUTTERER

Meaning: Sputterer: a person or thing that emits short, irregular bursts of sound or motion, often characterized by difficulty in maintaining a steady performance or flow.

1. The old engine was a notorious sputterer, often struggling to start in the cold.
2. During the debate, he was a sputterer, frequently losing his train of thought mid-sentence.
3. The comedian's reputation as a sputterer added to his charm as he fumbled through his routine.
4. In the quiet classroom, the sputterer at the back kept interrupting the teacher with his half-formed questions.
5. Despite being a sputterer in conversation, she had a wealth of ideas waiting to be expressed.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/sputterer>