

SQUAWL

Meaning: SQUAWL: to make a loud, harsh cry or noise, often associated with distress or a strong wind.

1. The baby began to squawl loudly when it realized its toy was out of reach.
2. As the storm approached, the wind would squawl through the trees, creating an eerie sound.
3. She couldn't help but squawl in frustration when she found out her plans had been canceled.
4. The parrot's squawl echoed through the house, alerting everyone to its presence.
5. After a long day at work, he let out a squawl of relief as he sank into his favorite chair.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/squawl>