

SQUINTER

Meaning: A squinter is a person who partially closes their eyes to see better, often due to bright light or concentration.

1. The squinter struggled to see the screen clearly due to the bright sunlight.
2. She was often mistaken for a squinter, but she simply had a habit of narrowing her eyes in concentration.
3. After forgetting her glasses, she became a squinter, trying to read the distant signs.
4. His squinter expression made it hard to tell whether he was angry or just trying to see better.
5. The doctor recommended a new prescription after noticing her squinter caused eye strain.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/squinter>