

SQUINTING

Meaning: SQUINTING: the act of narrowing one's eyes to see more clearly, often in response to bright light or small text.

1. She was squinting against the bright sunlight as she searched for her keys.
2. The child started squinting at the book, trying to decipher the tiny print.
3. He found himself squinting while attempting to read the distant road signs.
4. Squinting at the screen, she strained to see the details of the small image.
5. The doctor noticed her squinting and suggested an eye exam to check for vision problems.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/squinting>