

STABLENESS

Meaning: Stableness refers to the quality of being stable, characterized by firmness, consistency, or reliability in a particular context.

1. The stableness of the economy is crucial for long-term growth.
2. In the midst of chaos, she found stableness in her routine.
3. The engineers focused on the stableness of the structure during the design phase.
4. Maintaining emotional stableness is essential for overall well-being.
5. The team worked tirelessly to ensure the stableness of the project timeline.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/stableness>