

STACK

Meaning: STACK (noun): A neatly arranged pile or heap of items, typically placed one on top of another.

1. She carefully placed the books in a neat stack on the table.
2. The waiter brought over a towering stack of pancakes for breakfast.
3. The children built a stack of colorful blocks that reached the ceiling.
4. He decided to stack the boxes in the corner to save space in the garage.
5. After the storm, we found a stack of fallen branches in the yard.
6. The children built a tall stack of colorful blocks in the living room.
7. She decided to stack the books neatly on the shelf according to their size.
8. After the event, we had to stack the chairs and tables to make space for the next group.
9. The chef skillfully managed to stack the pancakes high, drizzling syrup on each layer.
10. In order to save space, he learned how to stack his clothes efficiently in the suitcase.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/stack>