

STAFFISH

Meaning: Staffish: exhibiting a superior or aloof attitude, often characterized by a sense of distance or detachment from others.

1. His staffish demeanor made it clear that he preferred to keep his distance from the team.
2. She approached the meeting with a staffish attitude, believing her experience set her apart from the others.
3. The director's staffish behavior alienated many of the employees, who found it difficult to connect with him.
4. Even in casual settings, her staffish tendencies emerged, leading others to feel intimidated by her presence.
5. Despite his impressive qualifications, his staffish mannerisms often overshadowed his professional achievements.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/staffish>