

STAGEHOUSE

Meaning: A stagehouse is a structure in a theater that houses the stage and related facilities, including equipment and storage for productions.

1. The stagehouse of the theater was bustling with activity as the crew prepared for the opening night.
2. During the renovation, the architects made sure to preserve the historic features of the stagehouse.
3. Actors often spend hours in the stagehouse, rehearsing lines and perfecting their performances.
4. The stagehouse provides essential storage for costumes, props, and set pieces used in productions.
5. After the performance, the cast gathered in the stagehouse to celebrate their successful run.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/stagehouse>