

STAID

Meaning: Staid: characterized by a serious, respectable, and conventional demeanor or attitude.

1. The staid professor rarely deviated from his traditional teaching methods.
2. Despite her staid appearance, she surprised everyone with her adventurous spirit.
3. The gathering was filled with staid individuals who preferred quiet conversation over lively debates.
4. His staid demeanor at the party made it hard for others to engage with him.
5. The art exhibit featured a staid collection of classical paintings that appealed to a conservative audience.
6. The staid gentleman preferred quiet evenings at home over raucous parties.
7. Her staid demeanor often led others to underestimate her adventurous spirit.
8. Despite his staid appearance, he surprised everyone with his witty sense of humor.
9. The meeting was filled with staid discussions that failed to inspire creativity.
10. In a world filled with trends, she remained steadfastly staid in her classic style.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/staid>