

STOIDNESS

Meaning: Stoidness refers to the quality of being serious, dignified, and unemotional, often exhibiting a restrained and conventional demeanor.

1. The stoidness of the meeting was palpable, as everyone adhered strictly to the agenda.
2. Despite her stoidness, there were moments when her true passion for art shone through.
3. His stoidness in social situations often made it difficult for him to connect with others.
4. The conservative design of the office reflected the stoidness expected in the corporate world.
5. She valued stoidness in her life, finding comfort in routine and predictability.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/stoidness>