

STALE

Meaning: Stale: no longer fresh or appealing, typically due to age or overuse.

1. The bread had gone stale after being left out for too long.
2. She could tell the jokes he told were stale, having heard them all before.
3. The air in the old room felt stale, as if it hadn't been breathed in ages.
4. He decided to throw away the stale cookies that no one wanted to eat.
5. Stale ideas can hinder creativity and prevent innovation in the workplace.
6. The bread had gone stale and was no longer enjoyable to eat.
7. After sitting in the fridge for a week, the leftovers tasted stale and unappetizing.
8. His jokes felt stale, as if he had recycled them too many times.
9. The air in the abandoned house was stale, filled with a musty odor.
10. Stale ideas often hinder creativity and innovation in the workplace.
11. The bread had gone stale after sitting out for too long.
12. His jokes felt stale, lacking the originality they once had.
13. They decided to throw away the stale snacks that nobody wanted.
14. After a while, the conversation turned stale and awkward.
15. She could tell the air in the room was stale, filled with unspoken tension.
16. His jokes were so stale that the audience barely reacted.
17. She could tell the air in the room was stale and needed freshening up.
18. The coffee tasted stale, as if it had been brewed hours ago.
19. He decided to throw out the stale cookies and bake a fresh batch.
20. The bread was stale and needed to be thrown away.
21. After sitting out for too long, the cookies had become stale and unappetizing.
22. His jokes were so stale that no one laughed at them anymore.
23. The air in the abandoned room felt stale, as if it hadn't been disturbed in years.

24. She decided to add some spices to liven up the stale pasta dish.
  25. The bread sat on the counter for too long and had become stale.
  26. After the party, the leftover snacks were stale and unappetizing.
  27. She could tell that the conversation had turned stale, lacking any real interest.
  28. His jokes felt stale, as if he had repeated them a hundred times before.
  29. The air in the abandoned room was stale, filled with the scent of dust and neglect.
-

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/stale>