

STALENESS

Meaning: Staleness refers to the state of being no longer fresh, appealing, or original, often resulting in a lack of interest or vitality.

1. The staleness of the bread made it unappetizing and dry.
2. Her ideas lacked originality, reflecting a certain staleness in her creativity.
3. The staleness of the air in the abandoned room added to its eerie atmosphere.
4. To combat the staleness in their routine, they decided to try new activities together.
5. The staleness of the conversation indicated that they had run out of things to discuss.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/staleness>