

STALK

Meaning: Stalk (verb): to follow or observe someone stealthily, often with the intent to harass or gather information.

1. She felt uneasy as she noticed someone stalking her from the shadows.
 2. The detective decided to stalk the suspect to gather more evidence.
 3. In the garden, the cat would often stalk the birds with great patience.
 4. He was too focused on his work to notice that someone was stalking his online profile.
 5. The documentary revealed the dangerous behavior of those who stalk their ex-partners.
 6. She felt uneasy as she noticed someone stalk her from a distance.
 7. The detective had to be careful not to reveal himself while he stalked the suspect.
 8. In the quiet woods, the deer would stalk their prey with silent grace.
 9. He decided to stalk his ex-girlfriend's social media to see how she was doing.
 10. The documentary captured the behavior of a lioness as she stalked her prey in the savanna.
 11. In the quiet woods, she could feel the eyes of the predator stalking its prey.
 12. He felt a chill as he realized someone was stalking him online.
 13. The documentary revealed the haunting behavior of animals that stalk their food in the wild.
 14. To truly appreciate the art of photography, one must learn to stalk the perfect shot without disturbing the scene.
 15. The detective decided to stalk the suspect discreetly to gather more evidence.
 16. In the quiet woods, she felt a chill as if something was stalking her from behind.
 17. He would often stalk his crush on social media, studying her every post and like.
 18. The documentary revealed how some animals stalk their prey with incredible patience and strategy.
 19. As the night fell, the shadows seemed to stalk the streets, creating an eerie atmosphere.
-

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/stalk>