

STALLER

Meaning: A staller is a person who intentionally delays or obstructs progress or decisions, often to avoid confrontation or controversy.

1. The politician was known as a staller, often delaying decisions to avoid controversy.
2. During the negotiation, his role as a staller frustrated everyone at the table.
3. She became a staller when it came to making plans, always finding reasons to put them off.
4. The staller in the project team led to missed deadlines and increased tension among members.
5. His reputation as a staller made others hesitant to rely on him for timely updates.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/staller>