

STAMMER

Meaning: Stammer (verb): to speak with involuntary pauses and repetitions, often due to nervousness or anxiety.

1. He tends to stammer when he feels nervous speaking in front of a crowd.
2. Despite his efforts to overcome his stammer, he still struggles during important conversations.
3. The therapist suggested various techniques to help her manage her stammer more effectively.
4. While he was embarrassed by his stammer, he learned to embrace it as part of who he is.
5. Listening to others with a stammer can foster empathy and understanding in communication.
6. Despite his best efforts, he began to stammer when speaking in front of the large audience.
7. She felt embarrassed when she started to stammer during the important presentation.
8. As a child, he struggled to stammer less by practicing his speech with a therapist.
9. The sudden pressure made him stammer, causing him to lose his train of thought.
10. Her heart raced as she tried to calm her nerves, hoping she wouldn't stammer.
11. He tends to stammer when he is nervous in front of a large audience.
12. As a child, she struggled with a stammer that made communication challenging.
13. Despite his stammer, he delivered a powerful speech that inspired many.
14. Therapy helped him manage his stammer and speak more confidently.
15. When speaking quickly, he often found himself stammering over his words.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/stammer>