

STANCH

Meaning: STANCH (verb): to stop or restrict the flow of something, especially a liquid or information.

1. The doctor worked quickly to stanch the bleeding from the patient's wound.
2. To stanch the flow of misinformation, the organization issued a public statement.
3. They used a cloth to stanch the water leaking from the broken pipe.
4. His quick actions helped to stanch the panic that was spreading through the crowd.
5. The team implemented new measures to stanch the losses from the declining sales.
6. She used a clean cloth to stanch the flow of blood from the wound.
7. The firefighters worked tirelessly to stanch the spread of the flames before they reached the neighboring houses.
8. The doctor was able to stanch the patient's bleeding with a quick application of pressure.
9. To stanch the tide of misinformation, the organization launched a comprehensive public awareness campaign.
10. He tried to stanch his tears, but the sadness overwhelmed him.
11. She applied pressure to the wound to stanch the bleeding.
12. The quick-thinking paramedic worked to stanch the flow of blood before they reached the hospital.
13. In an effort to stanch the outflow of sensitive information, the company implemented new security measures.
14. He used a cloth to stanch the leak in the pipe until a plumber could arrive.
15. Their attempts to stanch the rising tide of misinformation proved to be a difficult task.
16. The nurse worked quickly to stanch the bleeding from the patient's wound.
17. Even a momentary distraction can stanch the flow of creativity in a writer.
18. He applied pressure to stanch the blood, hoping to keep the injury from worsening.
19. Their efforts to stanch the tide of misinformation were met with resistance online.

20. It took all her strength to stanch the flood of emotions that threatened to overwhelm her.
21. He used a clean cloth to stanch the flow of blood from the cut on his hand.
22. Efforts to stanch the rising tide of misinformation were met with resistance.
23. The gardener tried to stanch the spread of weeds before they overtook the flower beds.
24. In an attempt to stanch the crisis, the CEO held an urgent meeting with the board.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/stanch>