

STAPHYLINE

Meaning: Staphyline refers to a clustered or whorled arrangement, particularly in the context of flowers or structures resembling such a formation.

1. The staphyline arrangement of the flowers created a stunning visual effect in the garden.
2. Researchers are studying the staphyline structure of certain proteins to understand their functions better.
3. In her botanical illustrations, she captured the delicate staphyline growth patterns of the vine.
4. The staphyline formation can often be seen in the clustering of berries on the bush.
5. His fascination with staphyline shapes led him to explore various plant species in the tropics.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/staphyline>