

STAR-BLIND

Meaning: Star-blind: unable to perceive or appreciate the beauty of the night sky due to light pollution or urban surroundings.

1. He felt star-blind in the bustling city, oblivious to the wonders of the night sky.
2. After years of living in the suburbs, she had become star-blind, forgetting the beauty of a clear, starry night.
3. The light pollution made him star-blind, unable to see the constellations he once loved to identify.
4. In her star-blind state, she missed the simple joys of nature, lost in the distractions of everyday life.
5. Despite being star-blind, she still cherished the memories of camping under the stars in her childhood.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/star-blind>