

STARCHER

Meaning: A starcher is a person who applies starch to fabrics or laundry to enhance their stiffness and finish.

1. The starcher carefully measured the quantity of starch needed for the laundry.
2. In the textile industry, a starcher plays a crucial role in giving fabrics a crisp finish.
3. After the fabric was treated by the starcher, it looked remarkably fresh and clean.
4. The starcher's expertise was evident in the way he handled different types of materials.
5. Many garment factories employ a starcher to ensure their products meet quality standards.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/starcher>