

STARPROOF

Meaning: Starproof (adjective): designed to be resistant to or protective against the damaging effects of bright light or harsh outdoor conditions.

1. The new smartphone boasts a starproof design, ensuring it can withstand the harshest outdoor conditions.
2. She wore a starproof jacket that protected her from the harsh glare of the sun during the hike.
3. The company claims their latest telescope is starproof, allowing for clear views even in light-polluted areas.
4. His starproof sunglasses kept his eyes comfortable while stargazing on a bright summer night.
5. For the children's playground, they installed starproof coverings to protect against weather-related wear and tear.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/starproof>