

STARRINESS

Meaning: Starriness refers to the quality or state of being filled with stars, particularly in the context of a night sky that is bright and visually striking.

1. The starriness of the night sky took her breath away as she gazed upwards.
2. In the quaint village, the starriness was a nightly spectacle that drew visitors from far and wide.
3. Children often lay on the grass, mesmerized by the starriness that filled the heavens during summer nights.
4. He captured the starriness in his painting, each dot of light a testament to the beauty of the universe.
5. As the fireworks faded, the starriness returned, reminding everyone of the magic hidden above them.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/starriness>