

STARTFULNESS

Meaning: Startfulness refers to a state of excitement and enthusiasm at the beginning of a project or endeavor, characterized by a sense of potential and creativity.

1. The startfulness of the project filled the team with excitement and determination.
2. In moments of startfulness, creativity often flourishes and leads to innovative ideas.
3. She approached each new challenge with an admirable sense of startfulness that inspired others.
4. The startfulness he felt during the early stages of his career pushed him to take bold risks.
5. Embracing startfulness can transform a mundane routine into an adventure filled with possibilities.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/startfulness>