

STATESMANLIKE

Meaning: Statesmanlike refers to exhibiting qualities of a skilled, dignified, and responsible leader, particularly in political or public affairs.

1. His statesmanlike demeanor during the debate impressed both allies and opponents alike.
2. The mayor's statesmanlike approach to the crisis earned him respect from the community.
3. She handled the negotiations in a statesmanlike manner, ensuring all parties felt heard.
4. The ambassador's statesmanlike qualities were evident in his ability to diffuse tensions.
5. In times of uncertainty, a statesmanlike leader can inspire confidence and unity among the people.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/statesmanlike>