

STATION

Meaning: A station is a designated place where vehicles, such as trains or buses, stop to pick up or drop off passengers.

1. The train will arrive at the station in ten minutes.
2. She waved goodbye to her friend as he boarded the bus at the station.
3. The old railway station has been converted into a charming cafe.
4. We found a quiet spot near the station to enjoy our picnic.
5. During the evening rush hour, the station was bustling with commuters.
6. The train will arrive at the station in five minutes.
7. She works at the bus station during the summer.
8. We decided to meet at the central station after the concert.
9. The old railway station has been converted into a museum.
10. He waited patiently at the station for his friend to arrive.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/station>