

STATIONERY

Meaning: Stationery refers to writing materials, especially paper, envelopes, and other office supplies used for correspondence or artistic purposes.

1. The artist carefully selected her stationery for the upcoming exhibition.
2. He wrote a heartfelt letter on beautiful, handmade stationery.
3. The stationery store offered a wide variety of notebooks and pens.
4. She organized her desk with neatly arranged stationery and office supplies.
5. The wedding invitations were crafted on luxurious, embossed stationery.
6. The artist preferred to use high-quality stationery for her sketches.
7. I always keep a supply of stationery at my desk for writing letters.
8. The bookstore had a lovely selection of colorful stationery and greeting cards.
9. After searching for hours, she finally found the perfect stationery for her wedding invitations.
10. His collection of vintage stationery included elegant letterheads and envelopes.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/stationery>