

STEEP-DOWN

Meaning: Steep-down (adjective): characterized by a sharp or abrupt decline in slope or angle, often referring to a path or drop.

1. The hiker carefully navigated the steep-down path that led to the valley below.
2. As the roller coaster approached the steep-down drop, the crowd erupted in cheers.
3. After a steep-down transition, the team regrouped at the bottom of the hill.
4. The steep-down descent challenged even the most experienced mountain bikers.
5. They decided to take the steep-down shortcut to reach the beach faster.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/steep-down>