

STEEP

Meaning: Steep: having a sharp incline or requiring a significant effort to learn or adapt.

1. The trail led us up a steep mountain, offering breathtaking views of the valley below.
2. She faced a steep learning curve when she started her new job, but she adapted quickly.
3. The steep price of the concert tickets discouraged many fans from attending.
4. He took a deep breath before attempting to navigate the steep hill on his bike.
5. The steep drop from the cliff made it clear that caution was necessary for hikers.
6. The steep climb to the summit left us breathless but exhilarated.
7. She found a steep discount on the shoes she had been eyeing for months.
8. The steep drop of the cliff made it a dangerous area for hikers.
9. His steep learning curve in the new job was both challenging and rewarding.
10. They faced steep competition in the market, but their innovative product stood out.
11. The steep hill made the hike much more challenging than we anticipated.
12. He was shocked by the steep price of the concert tickets.
13. The steep drop-off at the edge of the cliff left us in awe of nature's power.
14. She took a deep breath before attempting the steep climb to the summit.
15. The steep learning curve in this new job has been both exciting and intimidating.
16. The hikers struggled to climb the steep mountain trail.
17. Her voice took on a steep pitch as she expressed her excitement.
18. The price of the concert tickets was steep, leaving many fans disappointed.
19. The steep drop from the cliff made the view both breathtaking and terrifying.
20. He faced steep competition for the promotion at work.
21. The trail ahead became increasingly steep, challenging even the most experienced hikers.
22. She took a deep breath before attempting to climb the steep hill that loomed before her.

23. The steep price of the concert tickets discouraged many fans from attending the event.
24. After a long winter, the steep rooftops were finally free of the heavy snow.
25. His steep learning curve in the new job left him feeling both overwhelmed and excited.
26. The steep hill was challenging for the cyclists during the race.
27. Her voice rose steeply as she expressed her excitement about the news.
28. The price of the concert tickets was steep, but fans were eager to attend.
29. He took a deep breath before attempting to climb the steep staircase.
30. The steep cliffs along the coast offered breathtaking views of the ocean.
31. The mountain trail was so steep that I could barely keep my balance.
32. She was hit with a steep price for the concert tickets, much higher than she anticipated.
33. His learning curve for the new software was steep, but he managed to catch up quickly.
34. The steep cliffs along the coastline offered breathtaking views of the ocean below.
35. The company experienced a steep decline in sales after the product recall.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/steep>