

STEEPLE-CROWNED

Meaning: Steeple-crowned refers to a structure, particularly a building, that is topped with a steeple, typically a tall, pointed tower that often serves as a distinctive architectural feature.

1. The church was easily recognizable by its steeple-crowned tower that reached towards the sky.
2. In the early morning light, the steeple-crowned building cast long shadows across the cobblestone streets.
3. The artist captured the essence of the town, highlighting its historic, steeple-crowned architecture.
4. Visitors marveled at the intricate details of the steeple-crowned structure, which stood as a testament to the community's heritage.
5. As the sun set, the steeple-crowned silhouette of the cathedral became a striking feature against the colorful horizon.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/steeple-crowned>