

STEM-WINDER

Meaning: A stem-winder is a type of mechanical clock or watch that is wound by turning a knob or stem to wind the mainspring.

1. The vintage clock on the mantel is a beautiful stem-winder, requiring a delicate touch to keep it running smoothly.
2. As a watchmaker, he enjoyed the challenge of repairing intricate stem-winders from the early 20th century.
3. She carefully placed the stem-winder in its designated spot, ensuring it was easily accessible for daily use.
4. The collector proudly displayed his assortment of stem-winders, each with its own unique history and craftsmanship.
5. Restoring the old stem-winder to its former glory was a labor of love that tested his mechanical skills.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/stem-winder>