

STEM-WINDING

Meaning: Stem-winding is the process of winding a mechanical watch or clock by turning a stem or crown to tighten the mainspring and restore power to the timekeeping mechanism.

1. The watchmaker carefully engaged in stem-winding to ensure the vintage timepiece kept perfect time.
2. After years of neglect, the old clock required a thorough stem-winding to restore its functionality.
3. He demonstrated the delicate art of stem-winding to the intrigued visitors at the horological museum.
4. Understanding the mechanics of stem-winding is essential for anyone interested in repairing antique watches.
5. She enjoyed the calming ritual of stem-winding her grandfather's beloved pocket watch each evening.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/stem-winding>