

STEP-UP

Meaning: Step-up: to increase or enhance one's effort, commitment, or intensity in a particular area.

1. To achieve your goals, you need to take a step-up in your commitment to exercise.
2. The company decided to step-up its marketing efforts to reach a broader audience.
3. After years of hard work, she felt ready to step-up and lead the team on the new project.
4. In times of crisis, it is crucial for leaders to step-up and provide clear guidance.
5. He knew it was time to step-up his game if he wanted to compete at a higher level.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/step-up>