

STEREOPTICON

Meaning: A stereopticon is a device that projects two slightly different images simultaneously to create a three-dimensional effect, often used for displaying photographs or slides.

1. The museum featured a vintage stereopticon that brought historical photographs to life.
2. As the lights dimmed, the audience eagerly awaited the presentation on the stereopticon.
3. She marveled at the three-dimensional effects created by the stereopticon during the lecture.
4. He carefully adjusted the lenses of the stereopticon to ensure a clear view of the images.
5. The stereopticon was a popular tool in the early 20th century for educational demonstrations.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/stereopticon>