STEREOTYPY

Meaning: Stereotypy refers to a repetitive or rigid behavior pattern, often indicative of underlying issues, or the unvarying representation of concepts, such as gender roles.

1. Stereotypy in behavior can often be a sign of underlying neurological conditions.
2. The artist challenged the stereotypy of gender roles in her latest exhibition.
3. In psychology, stereotypy refers to repetitive movements or sounds that serve no apparent purpose.
4. Addressing the stereotypy in media representation is essential for promoting diversity.
5. Many educators strive to break the stereotypy that often limits students' potential.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/stereotypy