

STERILITY

Meaning: Sterility refers to the state of being free from living microorganisms, essential for preventing contamination in laboratory and medical environments.

1. Sterility is crucial in a laboratory setting to prevent contamination of experiments.
2. The doctor explained that the sterility of the surgical instruments is vital for patient safety.
3. Concerns about the sterility of the water supply led to immediate testing and treatment.
4. In order to ensure sterility, the research team followed strict protocols during the experiment.
5. The sterility of the environment can significantly affect the results of the clinical trial.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/sterility>