STERQUILINOUS

Meaning: Sterquilinous refers to having the foul odor or characteristics associated with excrement or dung.

1. The sterquilinous smell of the neglected barn filled the air, making it nearly unbearable to enter.
2. After the heavy rain, the fields were left with a sterquilinous residue that attracted a swarm of flies.
3. Despite its sterquilinous reputation, the compost pile was a vital part of the garden's ecosystem.
4. He avoided walking through the sterquilinous alley behind the market, as it always reeked of waste.
5. The sterquilinous conditions in the abandoned lot drew the attention of environmental activists.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/sterquilinous