

STETHOSCOPIST

Meaning: A stethoscopist is a medical professional who uses a stethoscope to examine and diagnose patients by listening to internal sounds, particularly the heart and lungs.

1. The stethoscopist carefully listened to the patient's heartbeat, searching for any irregularities.
2. After years of training, she became a highly skilled stethoscopist, renowned for her diagnostic abilities.
3. During the medical conference, the stethoscopist demonstrated the latest techniques in auscultation.
4. Colleagues often sought the advice of the experienced stethoscopist when faced with challenging cases.
5. His passion for medicine drove him to become a stethoscopist, where he could make a difference in patients' lives.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/stethoscopist>