

STIBBORN

Meaning: Stubborn: having a determined refusal to change one's mind or behavior, often despite good reasons to do so.

1. The child's stubborn refusal to eat vegetables worried her parents.
2. Despite numerous warnings, he remained stubborn in his decision to ride the untested bike.
3. Her stubborn nature often led to heated debates with her colleagues.
4. Even though the evidence was clear, he remained stubborn in his opinions.
5. The stubborn tree stood tall against the fierce winds of the storm.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/stibborn>