

STICH

Meaning: Stich: a single line of sewing or embroidery made with a needle and thread.

1. The tailor used a delicate stich to finish the hem of the dress.
2. After several attempts, she finally mastered the art of the perfect stich.
3. He admired the intricate stich patterns on the handmade quilt.
4. With each stich, she poured her love into the creation of the blanket.
5. The embroidery featured a vibrant stich that brought the fabric to life.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/stich>