

STICKLER

Meaning: A stickler is a person who insists on a strict adherence to rules, standards, or details.

1. She is a stickler for time management and expects everyone to arrive on schedule.
2. As a stickler for detail, he meticulously checked every page of the report before submission.
3. The teacher was known to be a stickler for grammar, often correcting students' essays with red ink.
4. My father is a stickler for family traditions, insisting that we celebrate every holiday the same way.
5. In his role as a coach, he became a stickler for good sportsmanship and fair play among his players.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/stickler>