

STIFF-NECKED

Meaning: Stiff-necked: stubbornly resistant to change or advice; inflexible in attitude or behavior.

1. His stiff-necked attitude made it difficult for him to accept any criticism.
2. The team's stiff-necked refusal to change their strategies led to their defeat.
3. Despite the evidence presented, she remained stiff-necked in her beliefs.
4. The government's stiff-necked response to public outcry resulted in widespread protests.
5. They approached the negotiation with a stiff-necked determination that alienated potential allies.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/stiff-necked>