

STIFF-NECKEDNESS

Meaning: Stiff-neckedness refers to a stubborn or inflexible attitude that resists change or advice.

1. His stiff-neckedness often led him to miss out on valuable advice from his colleagues.
2. The team's progress was hindered by the manager's stiff-neckedness in rejecting new ideas.
3. Despite the overwhelming evidence, her stiff-neckedness prevented her from changing her opinion.
4. Stiff-neckedness can be a barrier to personal growth and adapting to change.
5. The community's stiff-neckedness in the face of modernization sparked heated debates.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/stiff-neckedness>