

STIFFENING

Meaning: Stiffening refers to the process of becoming rigid or firm, often as a result of a change in temperature or tension.

1. The sudden drop in temperature caused the metal to begin stiffening.
2. She felt a stiffening in her muscles as the chilly wind swept through the open field.
3. The doctor explained that the stiffening of the joints is a common symptom of arthritis.
4. In the presence of a catalyst, the chemical mixture underwent a stiffening reaction, solidifying quickly.
5. His expression showed a stiffening resolve as he prepared to face the challenges ahead.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/stiffening>